Not illustrated. 1894 Excerpt: .the Century Club in Elkhart, Indiana, Thursday, May 3d, Dr. G. W. Bowen in the chair. The society was called to order, and at eleven o clock the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Dr. H. A. Mumaw, and approved. The president s address was warmly received and a vote of thanks tendered the doctor, voicing the interest of the association in all individual efforts toward its own advancement. The reports of the bureaux were entertaining, and the various papers read timely and full of meat. The attendance was the best of the series thus far, and each member went away with the full determination to have the present membership doubled by the next meeting. It was unanimously decided to hold the next meeting in Elkhart on the first Tuesday in October, 1894. It was also voted to make Elkhart the medical...
