Excerpt from Sowing for Others to Reap: A Collection of Papers on Various Subjects of Vital Importance to the Race The object of this book is two-fold; First, it would call the attention of the people everywhere to the National Association of Colored Women, a movement national in its scope, and of great interest to us as women and home-makers. This movement is circumscribed neither by creed or color, location or condition. So deep and broad and noble are its aims, so comprehensive its scope, so much needed its efforts, that it has engaged the earnest attention of the brainiest and most progressive women of the race. In the words of the constitution, its object is, to raise to the highest plane, the home, moral and civil life of our people. This is to be accomplished through the medium of women's clubs. These clubs are organized in every community with objects as varied as the work demands. Temperance, literary, art and music clubs, philanthropic needlework and missionary societies; house and home, and social circles are all...
