Not illustrated. 1871 Excerpt: .gave general satisfaction to all present, whether citizens or teachers. Library money is generally used for teachers wages. It should be apportioned directly for that object, or else the practice of allowing trustees to use it for any purpose except for libraries or the purchase of school apparatus, of which there is much need, should be discontinued by law. School libraries are now very little used, the large increase of family libraries, and monthly, weekly and daily publications, supplying more than most people have time or inclination to read. Compulsory attendance at school would, in many instances, reach those that the present law was intended to benefit, but who are either kept out of school to work, or allowed to wander about to engage in useless play or mischief. The State should compel their attendance at school, at least a part of the time. I am sorry to say that the great diversity of text-books, complained of for years, appears to be chronic, and is still getting worse in many schools. I intend and expect to remedy this evil, in part at least. I have made one hundred and thirty-five visits to the schools in my district within the year. In conclusion, I hereby express my thanks to the Department for the prompt and kind manner in which all my inquiries have been answered. T. G. SHAW, School Commissioner. Olmsteadville, Dec. 20th, 1870. FULTON COUNTY. Hon. Abram B. Weaver, Superintendent of Public Instruction: Sir.--In compliance with...
