We stopped at several islands and collected great stores of costly goods. After we had finished our traffic, we put to sea again and at last arrived at Bagdad. I gave large sums 5 to the poor and enjoyed myself with my friends in feasts and amusements. Here Sindbad made a present of one hundred sequins to Hindbad, whom he requested to return the next day to dine with him and hear the story of his fifth voyage. THE FIFTH VOYAGE OF SINDBAD THE SAILOR 10 All the misfortunes I had undergone could not cure me of my desire to make new voyages. I therefore had a ship built and, taking with me several merchants, I started on my fifth voyage. We touched at a desert island, where we found a roc s egg. 15 We could see that the young bird had begun to break the shell with his beak. The merchants, who were with me, broke the shell with hatchets and killed the young roc. Scarcely had they done this when the parent birds flew down with a frightful noise. We hurried to the ship and set sail as speedily as 20 possible. But the great birds followed us, each carrying a rock between its claws. When they came directly over our ship, they let the rocks fall and the ship was crushed and most of the passengers killed. I caught hold of...
