Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Resolutions of the Union Republican State Convention of Pennsylvania The Republicans of Pennsylvania, appealing again to the people, take pleasure in re-calling the repeated occasions on which the voters of the Commonwealth have sustained and ratified their candidates and principles; and, strongly impressed with the importance of the issues involved in the ensuing election, make this declaration of their opinions and purposes: First. That, in the name of the Nation saved from treason, we demand security against its repetition, by exacting from the vanquished such guaranties as will make treason so odious as to be forever impossible. Second. That, as in the past we cordially justified the administration of Abraham Lincoln in all necessary acts for the suppression of the rebellion, we record it as our judgment that the administration of Andrew Johnson has been chiefly faithless, in that it has failed to try to gather up and fix in the organic and statute law the great principles which the war has settled, and without whose adoption as a rule of action peace is but a delusion and a snare. Third. That, in the completion of the task of reconstruction so firmly as to be perpetual, it is indispensable that traitors beaten in the field shall not find a sanctuary in the courts; that the law shall not be tortured to justify or palliate the crimes of which the country's enemies have been guilty; and that the law of the war shall be so distinctly declared by the courts that no disturbing and paralyzing doubts may ever be raised, as in 1861, respecting the essential rights of the Government, or the personal duties of...
