Zealot Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Moneca (illustrator). 201 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Color Me Beautiful and Other Poems about Life, Love and Dreams is a rich collection of poetry about life as seen through the eyes of a young African American female coming-of-age in the inner city. Divided into five chapters of themes, you will meet a Detroit born-and-bred artist-poet and first time author.Appealing to young adult African American women, many poems are written as upbeat, spoken word pieces, to mirror the nuances of today s hip-hop rhythms and grooves. Color Me Beautiful includes personal reflections about life, love, hopes and aspirations that the author has for herself as a young African-American female, and the African-American community as a whole. Divided into five sections, Color Me Beautiful has fun, catchy poems that readers would enjoy, namely Designer Diva, Stargazing, and Rap Me A Serenade, to name a few. An emotional rollercoaster of feelings and experiences will ensue as readers are painted a picture with poetic imagery in this collage of poems. From feelings of self-doubt to helplessly falling in love, join in the journey of self-discovery and personal growth that Color Me Beautiful has in store.
