Serey/Jones. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 230 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. LEADERSHIP: Where Business Ethics Begin. This Instructors Edition has been written for individuals who find themselves in a position to help students step back and look at where they are going - or where they already are - as business participants, including those who are directly or indirectly involved in business. People whose participation is indirect are individuals who have a family member or friend involved/consumed with their position. This book can help in understanding what those business participants might be experiencing on physical, mental, emotional, and psychological levels. Chapter One: This book is about awareness and the role it plays in significantly increasing our quality of life and our ability to create value for ourselves and others. Chapter Two: Focusing on what is happening around you and then detaching from the result was one of the main ideas presented in chapter 1. Chapter Three: Out of expanding awareness comes what I have dubbed 180-degree vision. Chapter Four: The ability to manage the Four Ss by integrating a company's STRATEGY with evolving knowledge and information within the SCIENCE, SERVICE, and SPIRITUAL arenas requires an expanded awareness of personal service. Chapter Five: As stated in prior chapters, our vision or understanding of our role as a leader is impacted almost completely by our awareness and understanding of life and the human condition. Chapter Six: Leaders that begin to see with 180-degree vision as a result of increasing awareness will realize a powerful change in experience and success. They will intuitively focus on longer term issues. . . Chapter Seven: I first heard of the idea of frame of reference when I attended a program presented by Stephen R. Covey, author of the book Seven Habits of Highly Successful...
