Excerpt: . . . court by proclamation, from time to time, as justice may require. Sect. 14, Whenever a justice of the peace is unable, by reason of sickness, or other unforeseen cause, to attend at the time and place by him appointed for holding a court, any other justice in the county, who can legally try a cause between the parties in the pending suit, may continue such cause once, not exceeding thirty days, and note such continuance on the writ in such suit. The language of the Revised Statutes is different from that of the statute of 1834, and was obviously intended to enlarge the power of the justice, who might be required to continue a cause pending before another justice. It authorizes him to Von. xxxl. -43 continue it once at any time appointed for holding the court, by the justice before whom the cause is pending, either on the return day, or day of adjournment, whenever the latter is unable to attend, for the causes mentioned in the statute. In this case, the action appears to have been properly continued and tried before the magistrate, and to have been duly appealed, and entered in the District Court for a further hearing. Exceptions sustained. ALLEN, Administrator, versus PonmmozxY. A gift of personal property inter vivos, in order to be effectual, must be absolute, and the donor must, at the time of the gift, part with all present and future dominion over it.
