A young couple meet in England, and start working in Malawi as missionaries and social workers. Their son Alfie is thrown out of his school and has to make a new life for himself in UK. Thanks to Thor, Aidan and Astra (98 years old) everything gets a solution at the end. Here is a review from a good friend in the UK: (She used to work as an english teacher): =====REVIEW===== I have just finished reading your novel. Congratulations; I really enjoyed the experience and think you are tremendous for even attempting to write so well in a foreign language. When I was teaching English and wanted my students to review a poem, novel or play we used a formula based on the word STYLE . S is subject matter. T is tone Y (or I) is imagery L is language E is effect on the reader. So. here is a brief review for you!!!! S.sensitive, family, relationships, own experiences, social networking, hobbies, loves, social cultures of different countries. All fabulous in your book. I liked the subject matter; easy to relate to. Loved the fact that you used Greece, Norway etc and even little Ollie in your subject. T.just right. Personal, reminiscent of real life experiences, sensitive, moral, honest and amusing in parts. You blend well....
