Editorial Oceano de Mexico, United States, 2011. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 236 x 163 mm. Language: Spanish . Brand New Book. An excellent manual for the investor who is not an expert in finances. Investments. Five basic decisions are planted with the reader but are key to making your investments fruitful. The advice is simple, easy to follow and efficient, and allows you to develop a more profitable portfolio for any investor. Should I invest on my own or seek professional help? How should I assign my investments between stocks, bonds and cash? What specific types of stock within all of the great categories should I include in my portfolio? Should I adopt an active administrative method to invest or follow a passive option? When should I sell my stocks and when should I buy? In this world of operators who do not stop talking and believe that they can cheat the system, and in a market characterized by instability, this extraordinary and opportune book offers all of the orientation the investor needs.
