As a traveler in America, North and South, Russia, India, China, Australia, Europe and Japan, I have constantly been impressed with the need of a universal alphabet. Japan, I hear, is on the eve of adopting a phonetic alphabet of Roman letters. Your work will undoubtedly benefit all mankind. Andrew Ingraham, 4 Bryant St., Cambridge, Mass. There is a grandeur and dignity in the present suggestion which will appeal to many minds that are merely amused by what they have heard of spelling reform. Prof. J. B. E. Jonas (germanic Languages And Literatures), Brown UniverSity, Providence, R. I. This International Phonetic Alphabet is bound to come, and be practically universally adopted in time. The date of its advent must depend largely upon the wisdom, the scientific accuracy, and the ability to agree on one uniform satisfactory alphabet,...
