Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Account of the Conflagration of the Ursuline Convent: At the Request of Several Gentlemen, the Author Was Induced to Publish the Following Statement of Facts, in Relation to the Ursuline Convent, Which Was Destroyed by Fire, on the Night of August 11th, 1834 The occurrence, of which it is our intention to give a correct statement, transcends in many respects in enormity, any transaction to be found on the records of mankind. In making this assertion, we have taken into consideration, the general advance of the human race in knowledge, and we did hope also in virtue, and that this is particularly true of the favored inhabitants of Massachusetts, than whom we do believe there is no other collection of people on the globe, where information is so generally diffused, or deportment more morally correct. How could it happen, that in the midst of such a people, such an outrage against humanity should be perpetrated? It is impossible that the ostensible causes which led to it could be the true ones. The unfounded and scandalous rumors against the members of the Ursuline community have all vanished before the torch of truth. The fact is, there is one passion, and one passion alone, that could lead to such results, and that is fanaticism. It is not to be concealed or denied, that for some years past, there has been an endeavor to get up an excitement against the Catholic Religion, as one of the greatest curses to which our country is exposed. The Constitution of the United States recognizes no religion, but extends protection to all. It is too late now to inquire as to...
