High school senior Gabe Delgado is trying to trade his bad-boy ways for clean living. He remembers nothing about the night a mysterious girl loved him and left him at a party, except . . . there was a kind of magic around her that had nothing to do with his hangover the next day. Now he finds that magic in a basket on his doorstep, cooing at him like a happy little bird. Gabe, you probably already know our baby is, well, different. If not, you ll find out soon enough. Bad people want her. That s why I left her with you. I don t really understand what s going on, but it has something to do with The Abolesco. Don t try to find me. Please, take care of our baby girl and love her. Okay? The Abolesco are not friends of the family. They re on baby Birdie s trail, but why?
