Complete guideline for publication fans. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Excerpt: . . . 11 fundamentally sour relations between the United States and China. But through careful diplomacy, both sides respecting one anothers point of view, trying to find a solution, we found a solution. We got our crew home safely, we eventually got our plane home. It also set up conditions that allowed me to go to China later that summer for successful meetings that set the stage for President Bush to visit Shanghai for the APEC summit last fall. He had good meetings with President Jiang Zemin, and we have discovered in recent months that the Chinese are anxious to move forward with us on a positive agenda. We have emphasized that there are shared interests that we have with China, and they are global and regionally shared interests, such as Chinas access to the WTO, which has now occurred along with Taiwans access, and stability on the Korean Peninsula. We are with the Chinese on fighting the scourge of HIV AIDS, which is going to be a problem for China in the years ahead. On such issues we can have a dialogue and we can make measurable progress. But we do not want the interests where we differ to constrain us from pursuing those where we share common goals. That is what we are trying to do. President Jiang Zemin was one of the first world leaders to call President Bush and offer his sorrow and condolences for the...
