Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ABOUT TO LEARN THE TO LEARN When be affirmed that the man, differently of all other beings, is a rational being, between other things, it implicates to say what it should link, independently of his genetic differences and socioambiental, is able to learn. I.e. it does naturally without intelligence, capacity to think. Nietzsche says to us: (.) the intelligence is the life that clarifies the life (.) itself, (p.199, so Spoke Zarathustra). Any road, it is necessary to understand what it is an intelligence. According to the dictionary Aurelio, intelligence means: 1) Faculty or capacity to learn; 2) To apprehend; 3) To understand or to be adapted easily; 4) Mental skill; 5) Insight. Certainly Nietzsche is not, not from far away, when it are talking about these intelligences, what are centered in the skill of acquiring contents, of acquiring competences. Nietzsche is talking about the capacity of creation, of transformation, of overcoming, of the valuable break and of the delignification, of the establishment of new ones. In this sense, so that the intelligence really can be the life that comes to be able to clarify the life itself and does not take the individual to the prisons of the training, of the specific competences, of the techniques, of the mental intelligence, of the insight without virtues, it is necessary that, one understands that, there are several forms of thinking, of which we detach four: 1 - To think it how it will act, that it consists of the capacity of reproducing something right, representing social papers or be socializing; 2 - To think it how it will conceptualize, that it consists of the capacity of analysis,...
