

World Inequalities in Human Development Index 1980-2012

By Pavle Sicherl

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 64 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. Would you love to learn a new way of understanding and discussing development and world inequalities in a new dynamic framework? This manuscript expands your knowledge in two ways. Firstly, you master an innovative approach for looking at disparities over many units and over time. The new time distance measure, expressed in time units, is easy to understand by everybody and offers a novel way to compare situations in economics, politics, business and statistics. Secondly, the empirical results for the Human Development Index over the three decades (1980-2012) give you new insights for the post-2015 agenda. S-time-distance measure (calculations based on official UNDP data) estimates HDI inequalities for each of 187 countries within their peer group. Telling new stories includes inequalities within EU27, BRICS countries, and Gulf Coordination Council countries. Potential users of this methodology and results are international and national organizations, NGOs, experts, businesses, managers, educators, students, interest groups, media, and the general public at various levels. There are two summary messages. Firstly, the new generic time distance approach, which is easy to understand and to communicate, offers a new...
