Look up; stare at the sky above you. What do you see In the light of day we see the sun, light fluffy clouds and dark ominous clouds, and storm fronts as they move across our horizon. As you stare at the sky do you believe that the stars are still there; that the moon and all that exists in our universe is still there, even though it may not be visible to you in the light of day Most people accept this as truth. Why; because we have experienced seeing them in the darkness, and we remember Drop your eyes to the horizon line now. Infinity seems to have an ending; a clearly defined line where it all seems to stop. Yet, if we go the distance we learn that a new horizon line is established, and that the line we were sure existed from our previous vantage point was just an illusion. What is real And what is the purpose of the path we walk; the life journey we have embarked upon So many times this question has been asked. Mankind is still searching for the answer and usually become very determined when they suddenly feel they can find no purpose in their life. This creates a sense of hopelessness; the very idea that we have spent years and years aimlessly walking a path that leads nowhere would be a discouraging pursuit. It is likened to standing in the darkness; a moonless night where there is nothing visible; no hope at all. Yet, way down deep within us, a strong denial of this takes hold. We know it isnt so! We search for the things we...
